GOD'S WORD

This is at the heart of our weekend liturgy. The Word of God has a purpose and is not at rest until that purpose is achieved. Each day, each moment, God speaks to us - aloud and in the quietness of our hearts but we seem to find it difficult to hear Him. There are many other voices clamouring for our attention - from the daily demands of family life and making ends meet to the roar of television, call of the smartphone or tablet, internet time and so much more. The WORD is still spoken nonetheless and hopes to be heard. There's a crop needing harvesting - sixty, eighty, even a hundredfold.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

We remember in prayers all whose anniversaries occur around this time and, in particular, Mary Young, Drumalee, Co. Cavan (sister of Joe Duffy, Clooncara), Fr Robert Flynn (retired Parish Priest Ballymote and brother of Bishop Thomas Flynn) who died during the week, Frank Gallagher, Liecester and late of Barnacogue, (brother of Michael Gallagher, Barnacogue) May they and all who have died, rest in peace.

PARISH MAGAZINE

The Committee of Kilkelly / Kilmovee Its People and Its Places Parish magazine are currently busy compiling the 8th edition of magazine. We wish to thank all those who have contributed articles and photos in last year's edition and we are looking for articles, photos etc again this year for inclusion. We depend on our parish to assist us in contributing this information in order to give us new ideas & to make each edition more interesting and enjoyable for our readers. If you have any stories / photos / parish information etc that you would like to be included in this year's book, please send them by email to: kilkellykilmoveemagazine@gmail.com or contact any committee member.

CEMETERY UPKEEP

Envelopes available in Kilmovee Parish Church for the support of the upkeep of the cemeteries. These may be returned to committee members or brought along the day of the Cemetery Mass in Kilmovee. Many thanks for your ongoing support of this and so many projects in our parish.

YEAR OF PRAYER 2014

At the start of the year, Bishop Brendan issued an invitation to pray, to pray for God's direction for our diocese and to listen in prayer for that direction. It was an invitation to trust in the power of prayer and 'to find through prayer the joy of believing in Jesus, of being his disciples and of belonging to the church we hold dear'. It was an invitation to open our hearts to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the church in our parishes in our diocese and how we might respond to that Spirit call. Each week over the past months we have named and prayed for all twenty three parishes in the diocese and for the remainder of the year we are encouraging all to continue the prayer for the diocese, to pray the diocesan prayer 'alone or with others; to pray it slowly, mindfully and with absolute trust.' Each week for the coming months a particular parish will be the focus of our prayer and we begin as we did in January with the parish of Achonry/Mullinabreena where our spiritual heritage had its roots. We are grateful for the rich spiritual heritage that has spanned the centuries and for the godly men, women and children who have lived and cherished the faith through the years. It is our challenge now to live and pass on the faith. May we embrace this challenge with courage, with joy and a sure sense of God's love for each one of us.

NEW BISHOP

We remember Fr Kevin Doran who will be ordained Bishop of our neighbouring diocese of Elphin on this Sunday afternoon. A priest of the Archdiocese of Dublin, we bid a sincere welcome to our new neighbour. We pray God's blessings on Bishop Christy Jones that he may enjoy a well deserved retirement.

URLAUR PATTERN

Next meeting to plan for the Pattern takes place this Monday evening, July 14th, at 9pm. All welcome to attend and all support appreciated. See www.urlaurpattern.com for further details.

ST BRIGID'S CEMETERY

There will be Mass on Saturday next, July 19th, at 7pm in St Brigid's Cemetery, Urlaur. Please note additional reader and Eucharistic Minister listed for next week's Mass. If the weather is not favourable Mass will take place in Urlaur Church and will be offered for all the Faithful Departed, remembering in particular, those who have died in the past twelve months. Any help you can give on the evening and in preparation for the Mass will be appreciated.

CAMPA SAMHRAIDH

A summer camp will be held in Kilmovee Community Centre from Monday July 28th to Friday August 1st. The camp will cater for boys and girls from 5-12yrs, with arts and crafts, basketball, obstacle races, fun games etc. The camp will be facilitated by a qualified teacher and the aim is to use as much Irish as possible. The cost is €20 per child. Booking at Kilmovee Frc.

Thought we might get Garth for the Pattern but not looking likely!! There will be plenty entertainment on the day though so make sure to mark August 4th in your diary. One of my favourite Garth Brooks related comments this week is that he has released his own "MEMORY STICK" but it's only 3 gigs
