The Ascension of The Lord – 1st June 2014

AS HE ASCENDS

May He notice

Our faces in the crowd
Our willingness to serve
Our desire to do better
Our hearts renewed

May He give us

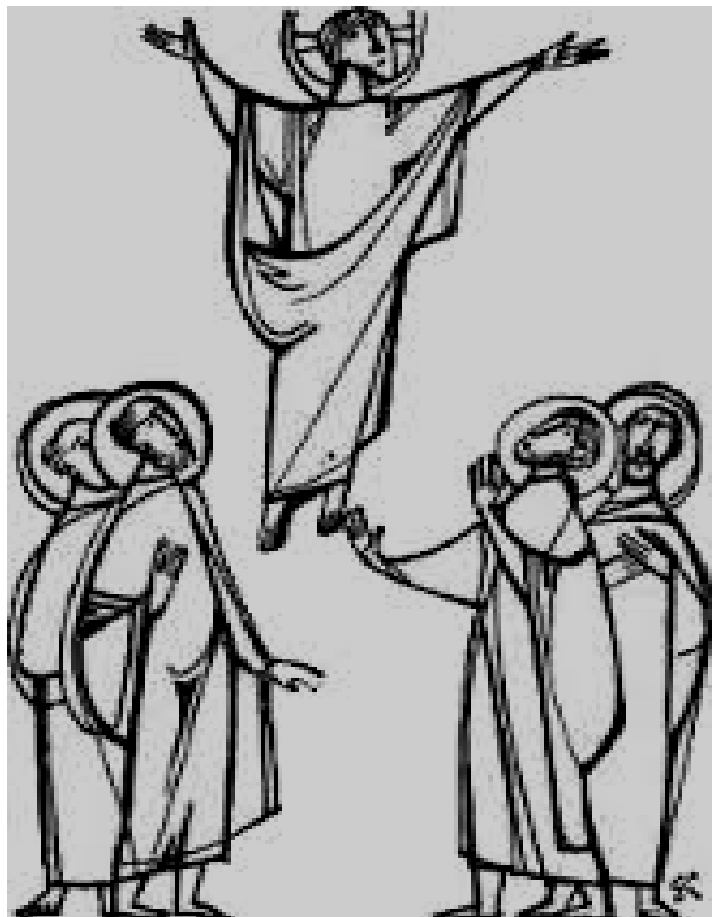

Strength for the journey
Trust in the day
Hope for tomorrow
Peace from our yesterdays

May He remind us

We are not forgotten
We are his people
The work of his hands
The joy of his heart

May He reassure us

The Spirit will come
The Father will watch over us
The Son will be our guide

PLEASE PRAY FOR

We remember in prayer all whose anniversaries occur around this time. We remember, in particular, Michael Tiernan, Huntsfield who died during the week and Tommy Lydon, Kent and late of Shammer, brother of Johnny Lydon, Goulane and Mary Bones, Derrough May they and all who have died, rest in peace.

ADORATION

As Monday is a Bank Holiday and some of those involved in Adoration might wish to avail of the free day, we will not have Adoration of The Blessed Sacrament in Kilmovee or Kilkelly. The Wednesday Adoration continues, as usual, in Urlaur and Kilkelly. The Adoration has been ongoing in the parish now for more than a year. Many thanks to all who have been so faithful to the weekly hour. In the coming weeks we may try to arrange a gathering of all those involved to discuss your experience, examine options and plan ahead. God Bless you all and bless you always.

YEAR OF PRAYER remembering PARISH OF SWINFORD

Swinford Parish is made up of the two ancient parishes of Kilconduff and Meelick, amalgamated in the 18th century. Ruins of an old church are still extant in Kilconduff Cemetery and the Round Tower at Meelick dating back to the 8th century with an inscribed stone are testament to the beginnings of the Christian faith in these parts. In Midfield there is a Mass Rock from Penal Times. There are three churches in the parish with vibrant communities: St. Joseph's, Midfield (1876), St. Luke's, Meelick (1881) and Our Lady, Help of Christians, Swinford (1891) (which has much-admired stained-glass windows and Stations of the Cross by Richard King). There are five primary schools and a secondary school (an amalgamation of the Convent of Mercy Secondary School, Cóláiste Pádraig and the VEC School). Swinford was the site of a Workhouse in the 19th century which is now part of the District Hospital and there is a famine grave at the site. The parish has 58 active clubs and organisations, including the Midfield Pipe Band and among Swinford's attractions are the annual

St. Patrick's Day Parade (which has run for 63 years) and the Siamsa Sráide Festival in August (celebrating 30 years this year). The priests of the parish are Fr. Dermot Meehan PP and Fr. Gerard Davey CC.

MASS OF THANKSGIVING

On Monday next 3rd June at 10.00am a Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated in Kilkelly Church to mark the Ruby anniversary of the ordination of Fr. Dermot Burns. All welcome to attend.

SEIÚIN na nÓG

Kilmovee Comhaltas will be holding their final Seiúin na nÓg before the summer break on Saturday 7th June, commencing at 8pm in Kilmovee Community Centre. Not alone will the evening include the usual mix of music, song & dance, we will also have a number of added attractions. These will include recent Scór na bPáistí winners Heather Hunt from Kilmovee NS and the Tavrane NS musical group. We will also have two special performances from the Apollos group from St. Nathy's College who came 3rd in Ireland in the School's Got Talent competition and Kilmovee Foróige club who recently won an All Ireland title for their novelty act. This promises to be a great night of entertainment and will also provide everyone with the opportunity to hear some of our branch prize winners from the recent Mayo Fleadh in Swinford. Please join us for a night of parish fun with an array of local talent and lots of raffle prizes.
