CEMETERY MASSES

This weekend, weather permitting, we will have Mass on Saturday evening in St Brigid's Cemetery, Urlaur and on August 2nd, again weather permitting, Mass will be in Culmore Cemetery. These are very important days in the parish's calendar since they are a call to all of us to remember in prayer all who have journeyed the way before us. The very act of moving out of the church building into the open air is a sign of that journey. The prayers offered in the church, throughout the year, give us the faith and desire to stand beneath the sky, our feet standing on some of the most Sacred Ground in our parish, in solidarity with and prayers for family, neighbours and friends who rest in Eternity.

We hope these Masses will be allowed take place and pray that the weather will be favourable. Should that not be the case, we will still remember in our Eucharistic celebrations in the churches of Glann and Urlaur.

We welcome all who join us for these Masses and encourage you all to invite those living away from the parish to come home and join us in prayer. We remember, in a particular way, those who have died in the past twelve months and, with them, their relatives and friends still coming to terms with their loss.

BISHOP KEVIN DORAN

During this words on Sunday Last, following his ordination as Bishop of Elphin, Bishop Kevin addressed the topic of vocations. Citing our neighbouring parish of Loughglynn, where the Parish Priest died a few weeks ago, (God rest you Fr John O'Rourke, R.I.P.), he said he knew the people of the parish await news of a replacement. He said he hopes there will be an answer in the short term but the long term situation is different. He said he can only have priests to send to parishes if parishes send priests to the diocese. It was a striking comment. He developed the theme by asking the people of Elphin Diocese (around 100,000 of them) to select from each of the six deaneries of the diocese one man to consider becoming a priest and to ask these men to get in touch with him or a member of the Vocations Team. Quite a challenge but a very essential one. Our diocese is also in need of fresh blood and new priests. Do you know anyone that you feel might have a vocation to the priesthood and would you consider making the suggestion to him? Think about it.

YEAR OF PRAYER 2014 ATTYMASS

Attymass is the focus parish for our prayer this week. Attymass is the birth place of the 'Servant of God', Fr. Patrick Peyton. Fr. Peyton was a great advocate of the importance and power of prayer. The prayer he promoted was the Rosary, a prayer learned in the family home and prayed there daily. We thank God for the tremendous witness of this holy, humble man and the heroic efforts he made to promote the Rosary and highlight the value and gift of prayer. 'The family that prays together stays together'. 'A world at prayer is a world at peace'. We pray that some day in the not too distant future this son of Attymass will be declared a saint. The process began in June 2001 and he is already acknowledged with the title 'Servant of God'. We are praying for our diocese because ... like Fr. Peyton, we believe in the power of prayer to open our hearts to God's plan and purpose for our lives and the church we love and serve
