A PILGRIM'S THOUGHT

*“To hear the whisper of the Lord,
you must turn down the volume of the world. Find time to disconnect from everything around you and
be still in His presence.”*

A visitor/pilgrim to Lough Derg wrote these words. He or she attached no name but shared the words later with the staff there. They feature in a book LOUGH DERG - Island of Miracles by Fr Eamonn Conway. There's a lot in these words and maybe they have a place in our prayer and reflections during the coming week.

How ready are we for this “disconnection”? Certainly it's not always easy but it seems so necessary. We are, on all sides, bombarded by noise and activity and so little time is set aside for reflection and prayer. Just as we can only truly hear another person when we fall silent and allow him or her to speak, so it is - has to be - with God. It's only in some form of silence that His voice can be heard. Yes HE can be shouting at us, prompting us even as we rush around but the true hearing only takes place when one voice is functioning. Following silence of course, we need to respond in some form to what has been heard.

Maybe we need to introduce a bit more space for silence in our Masses too. Those few quiet moments after God's Word is read, following the homily, after Holy Communion. Something for us all to think about .....

OFFERTORY COLLECTORS

Would you consider helping with the Offertory Collection in our churches? Though we have people who kindly do this each week, it might be a way of involving a few more people in our weekly liturgies and of taking pressure off those who already do and wil continue to fulfil this role. Think about it and let one of the priests know. If we have a few additional people in each church we can compile a rota. Thanks for giving this some thought!!
