25th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 22nd September 2013

KILTIMAGH OR KILLESTER? BALLAGH OR BALLYFERMOT?

Where will you be this week Sam??

On Sunday the cameras will focus on you several times before and during the All-Ireland Final. We'll see you shined and polished, ready for the road and draped in the colours of Dublin and Mayo. You'll just sit there, the prize waiting to be claimed - the destination point of a country - but focus will shift from you to the teams and officials on the pitch. There will be commentary and analysis, statistics and facts and at game's end, you will be handed to either the captain of Dublin or Mayo - he (Andy!!!) will hold you high to a cheering crowd and give thanks for your presence, thanks to all who have supported the team through "thick and thin", good days and bad and, in a special way, to the generations who have kept the faith and held strongly to the belief that this day would come. Come it has. The hour is here.

You'll not force yourself on anyone Sam but remain there, centre stage, for the hands that have been proved worthy of lifting you on high. You are happy in the colours of any county and willing to go where invited so that a people may feel upbeat and renewed. You'll stay as long as you're welcome, go wherever you're brought and be there for anyone that approaches you. You will be a prized possession, a certain friend and a reminder that all is possible.

In ways Sam, you could remind us of Jesus. He is our goal, our prize and our intended focus. Sometimes we allow our focus drift from him to the game on the pitch but even if we do, we know that it's only when he's taken in hand, lifted on high and invited to join us on our journey that he's fully alive in our hearts and forever treasured.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

We pray Winnie Bainbridge (nee Griffin) of Liandudno, North Wales and formerly of Culclare Kilmovee and for all whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they rest in peace.

DO YOU HAVE THE "X" FACTOR???

At the moment we're looking at putting together a Youth Choir in the parish. This would work in conjunction with existing choirs and possibly be available to sing and assist with liturgies within the parish. The first of these might be our November Memorial Service. Do you have an interest in music? Can you play an instrument and/or sing a song? Do you have leadership skills? Could you help to shape such a Youth Choir?

There is a number of younger parishioners willing and available to share their musical talents but, in truth, we need someone to put shape on their work, purpose in their singing and to help them enhance our parish life. It's real opportunity to actively involve young people in the life of the parish.

If you feel you can help with this, please get in touch. SOON!!!
