Second Sunday of Lent - 24th February 2013

THE TRANSFIGURATION

This week we had the Public Apology, on behalf of the Irish Nation, to the “Magdalene Women”. The Taoiseach, clearly emotional and impassioned, spoke to the hearts of those who carried a heavy weight for far too long.

Most of us will never know the full telling of their story. It's clear though, that a common burden was borne by them all and a weight, most certainly not of their own making, had to be carried. It was an emotional as well as physical weight that dug deeply into their hearts and consciousness and, most likely, impacted heavily on every detail of their lives and relationships. We wish and pray them peace for the remainder of their days.

They appeared “transfigured” on the grounds of Dáil Éireann following the speech. It was as if new life had been poured over them and it shone from their smiles, even mixed with tears, and their words that spoke of being believed. There was a recognition of a hidden life and what was real was brought to the surface.

Mount Tabor may have been something like that. The hidden revealed and recognised - life never the same again.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

We remember Thomas Dolye, Wellingbrough, England, brother of Breege Forry Bar na Trimoge and Michael Raleigh (Co. Cork) father of Michael Raleigh, Culclare who died recently. We pray for all whose anniversaries occur around this time. May all who have died, rest in peace.

BAPTISM

We welcome into our Christian community Emma Grace Horan who was baptised in St. Patrick's Church, Glann on Saturday 16th February

THE GATHERING

There was a representative attendance at last weeks' meeting in Urlaur to discuss possible plans around "The Gathering". While nothing has been finally decided, the proposed agenda might include Mass in Glann Church on Saturday evening for living and deceased of the parish - with special remembrance of our emigrants, a play or concert on Saturday evening in Kilmovee Community Centre (possibly around the theme of Kilkelly Ireland), the annual Pattern in Urlaur Abbey on Sunday and maybe a revisit to the "Fair Day" in Kilkelly on Monday. All of this is more "suggestion" than definite format at this stage but seems workable enough! What do you think? Any other ideas or suggestions? To allow a bit of time for thought there won't be a meeting this week but we will meet again in Urlaur Community Centre on Tuesday March 5th at 8pm. All are welcome. Your ideas and your attendance are important so if you can come along, please do.

PARA CYCLING NEWS

Ballaghaderreen should be a hive of activity with the 1st stage of the Invacare Para Cycling Time Trials on 9th March with first rider out at 1pm from the Castlerea Rd. Prior to the event at race HQ (Ballaghaderreen GAA Clubhouse) a come and try event is being held during sign in from 11.30 for U17s and novice cyclists. The club will have Cathal Miller who represented Ireland in this year's Olympic Games to give tips and tricks to the next generation of Para Cyclists on the day and experienced cyclists will be there to answer questions. A great day is in store for the youth to try the sport with a follow on day being hosted in Sligo IT on 23rd March from 11. Their will be traffic disruptions on the Castlerea Rd towards Kilmovee Village from 12.30 - 2.30 for main event. BCC would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused. More Information 086-8717656

CONCERT IS "GO"!

Fr James McDonagh with members of his family and friends will take to the stage on Friday March 15th in Kilmovee Community Centre. It promises to be a very enjoyable night with a mix of story, song and great music. This is part of the fundraising for "The Gathering" and we truly hope that many will come along to mark the beginning of St Patrick's Day weekend. Tickets are on sale at €5.00 each and are available locally from Urlaur Pattern Committee members. Mark the date! Join us for a memorable evening!

KILMOVEE SHAMROCKS

The numbers drawn for the lotto for Saturday 9th February were 8,12,16,29, and for Saturday February 16th were 14,17,27,44. There were no winners. Keep up to date with club news by logging on to www.kilmoveeshamrocks.com You can now pay membership or buy county board tickets on line.

URLAUR UTD. YOUTHS

Urlaur Utd Youths Committee has announced that registration will take place on Sunday 24th February at Urlaur Community Centre 12.30 – 1pm However, there was concern that numbers are working against the club along with a number of other conditions out of their control and there is a real danger that youth soccer at the club may not survive without the support of the community. The youth teams that the committee wish to enter into competitive leagues are as follows; U12, U13, U14, U15, U16 & U17 these will only be entered if there is a minimum of 14 players registered for specific team (eg. 14x players registered for U12's, 10x Players registered for U13's and 4 players from U12's makes the required 14. and so on) The registration will be a flat €25 per child payable on the registration day. If for any reason you cannot make the registration could you please let us know your intention to register with the club.

QUILT MAKING CLASSES

Following the success of last terms class and the making of very beautiful quilts, quilt class will continue this year. So if you wish to learn, come along to Kilmovee Community Centre on Tuesday's at 7:30pm.

COMMUNITY COUNCIL

The next Community Council meeting will take place in Kilmovee Community Centre on Tuesday 26th February from 9-10pm. All welcome.

AGHAMORE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Please Support as this over from our Lotto

KILMOVEE BOOKLET

The heritage committee is hoping to compile a booklet on Kilmovee. The contents would document all the shops and trades people in every village over the years. If anyone has information on a shop or a tradesperson in your village the committee would appreciate if you could leave that information into the front office in Kilmovee Community Centre or 'Cois Tine' heritage centre Monday – Friday. 9.30am – 5pm

LENTEN THOUGHTS

If you browse the web, you might like to visit sherlockshome.info where I'm trying to keep a daily thought going for Lent.

ADORATION FEEDBACK

We are awaiting feedback from those who spoke to us last weekend. A very good response overall.
