MISSION STATEMENT

The Parish of Kilmouree is a Christian Community, committed to making everyone welcome through meeting in liturgy, prayer and friendship as we bear witness to the love and compassion of Jesus Christ. Fáilte roimh gach éinne.

Sixth Sunday of Easter – 25th May 2014

COME HOLY SPIRIT

Jesus focuses the Apostles' attention on the gifts and strengths they are to receive with the coming of The Holy Spirit.

Rather, he tries to focus their attention but struggles in getting the message across to them that he must first depart so that they can be re-energised for the mission ahead.

They grappled with the concept and were quite confused, indeed frightened by the prospect of being without him in their daily lives. It did not occur to them, it seems, that he would be part of all they sought to be through that same outpouring of the Holy Spirit since Jesus, with the Father, is caught up in the mystery that is Trinity.

We too struggle to come to a meaningful understanding of what it is to receive The Holy Spirit. For those of us who have been baptized the Holy Spirit is a constant in our lives and, with Confirmation, the Gifts and Fruits associated with his presence become all the more evident, relevant and present.

The Holy Spirit is at work in our lives when we seek His guidance, allow His power to guide us and seek, in the depths of our hearts and maybe even confusion, His presence.

We are not alone. We cannot be alone for The Spirit has truly come.

YEAR OF PRAYER remembering PARISH OF STRAIDE

The parish boundaries of Straide (Templemore) parish stretch from Lough Cullen in the north to close to the town of Balla in the south and is bordered, largely, by Bohola and Foxford parishes to the east and Tuam diocese to the west. The parish contains many historical sites – including Wedge Tombs (2500–1800 BC) and Ring Forts (400–1100 AD). The townland of Ballylahan also contains the ruins of one of the first and largest baronial castles built in Mayo in the mid 13th century by Jordan of Exeter who also built Straide Abbey in 1252. Straide's most famous son is, undoubtedly, Michael Davitt who was instrumental in founding and advancing the aims of the Land League. He is buried in the grounds of Straide Abbey. The disused Church in which he was baptised is now a museum in his honour. The parish has one Church and one Primary School. It also has a Community Hall named after Michael Davitt. 2014 marks the 100th anniversary of the laying of the foundation stone of the present Church. Fr. Martin Convey is the parish priest of Straide. Further details on www.straideparish.com
