30th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 26th October 2014

HOLY HOUR

This Sunday

6pm-7pm

KILMOVEE

There has been much favourable comment about our recent Parish Mission. This is all so welcome and very reassuring. Thanks to you all for your kind words and, more especially, for your support of the Mission during the course of its run. There's no doubt it was a special time for us all. Thanks again to the Franciscan Friars who spent the days with us.

It would be great to think we could build upon these days and harness the enthusiasm that was around them. How can this be done? How can we continue to look out for one another, to pray with one another and give life to the parish? How can we celebrate our faith? How can we bring more of our younger friends to an experience of Liturgy that inspires them and wants them to journey along the way of faith? How can we reassure the elderly, the lonely and the sick that they are not forgotten or overlooked? How can we compete with so much noise in life that drowns out the sound of the Church's Bell calling us to worship and the voice of God calling us to friendship?

There are so many questions! The answers aren't as plentiful but must lie somewhere within you and I this weekend. Why are you reading these lines? Why have you this Parish Newsletter in your hand or in front of you on a computer screen? The answer to that is rooted in this place - this parish - and a sense of belonging here.

The old add for Coca-Cola echoed the words of the song, "I'd like to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony ...." - a noble and praiseworthy wish. It was about bringing people to a place of contentment and togetherness. That's what we're about too, all of us, as parish. Did you notice the little phrase added to the top of this page? It says "A family of families" and that's what a parish is. We're in this together.

We began the month of October with a Holy Hour in Kilmovee - it took in the Angelus, a bit of reflection, some music and the Rosary. We could do worse than end the month the same way. Join us then at 6pm in Kilmovee Parish Church this Sunday evening.

YEAR OF PRAYER 2014 KEASH

Winter times begins today, the last Sunday of October. In this 'time changing' exercise, daylight hours, already shortening, are re-arranged to give the brighter hours to the earlier part of the winter day. The process will add an extra hour to this day and give this week one hundred and sixty nine hours. How might these hours be filled! Fifty plus may be given over to sleep, work will account for another fifty or more, eating will absorb about ten. Twenty could be given to watching TV or listening to the radio and easily, another twenty, might be frittered or twittered away on the internet, iPhone, facebook or other gadgetry of our digital age. Life is busy, times moves constantly and it is so easy to get caught up in the urgent, the immediate to the neglect of the important. Where does God and prayer feature in a busy day, in a very full week! We are praying for our diocese because .... we believe that time spent in prayer opens minds and hearts to the God who always has time for us, the God who helps us discover his purpose for our lives, for our parish and for our diocese.

DIOCESAN MISSION

As part of the Year of Prayer in the Diocese of Achonry, a Diocesan Mission will take place in Parish Areas throughout the diocese. The Mission consists of three nights in three different locations, where Mass will be celebrated. Each night will have its own theme and will offer some questions for on-going reflection. The themes are "Personal Renewal". "Parish Renewal" and "Diocesan Renewal". Preachers include Bishop Brendan Kelly, Monsignor Thomas Johnston and Frs Dermot Meehan, James McDonagh and Vincent Sherlock. Members of the Steering Group for the Diocesan Vision Group will attend and participate in sharing questions and leading a Pastoral Reflection. The venues are: Swinford Parish Church - Tuesday October 28th, Wednesday October 29th and Thursday October 30th. Mass each evening at 7.30pm. Ballymote Parish Church - Monday November 3rd, Tuesday November 4th and Wednesday November 5th. Mass each evening at 7.30pm Tubbercurry Parish Church - Monday November 10th, Tuesday November 11th and Wednesday November 12th. Mass each evening at 7.30pm. Bishop Brendan Kelly and the Diocesan Vision Group extend an invitation to all in the diocese to attend the "Diocesan Mission - A Journey Shared" in one of these venues.
