YEAR OF PRAYER

remembering PARISH OF KEASH

The parish of Keash and Culfadda is situated some twenty miles south of Sligo and eight miles north west of Boyle. Some miles to the west lie the Slieve Gamph or Ox Mountains. The hills which start about four miles south of Collooney and remain low for another five miles rise to the distinctive limestone hill of Keashcorran, situated in the parish where a new Millennium Cross was erected in May 2000. Keash Church dedicated to St Kevin was built in 1809. It is one of the oldest churches still in use in the diocese. A beautiful Grotto dedicated to our Lady of Lourdes was erected in 1997 on the East side of the Church. Culfadda Church dedicated to Our Lady of the Holy Rosary was opened in 1959. There are two National Schools, one in Keash and one in Culfadda. Two community centres and a wonderful football pitch. The Culfadda Show and Garland Sunday are wonderful occasions in the parish during the summer. Fr Gabriel Murphy is the parish priest of Keash
