LET YES

BE YES

It's so easy to say "yes" especially if the yes is less than certain. The father of this weekend's Gospel asks his sons to go and work in the vineyard. The first says "yes" but does not go and the second says "no" but later, through a bit of reflection, changes his mind and goes to do the work. Jesus asks which of the two did the will of the father - the answer of, course, the one who found his yes and went where he was needed.

Yes to the Father's Will is a very important and much needed response. More than the opposite of "no", it's a choice for a way of life that makes the best of who we are. That YES takes us beyond where our own sense of self-preservation might otherwise take us. It brings us into contact with others, with prayer, with discovery, with community - it brings us a place called "Church", not just the building with the spire, but the people who look to that place of worship for support, guidance and peace.

There are many opportunities for this "yes" to be found. Will you sing a song in the choir? Would you read at Mass? Will you be an Altar Server? Have you an hour to spend in adoration of The Blessed Sacrament? Will you say a prayer for me? Would you consider the possibility that God is calling you to priesthood or religious life?

You're needed in the Vineyard. We all are. He's asking us and He'll continue to ask. It seems to be His way - patiently He waits and daily He asks

Hopefully we'll find our "yes", even if we've said "no" in the past.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

We remember in our community prayer all whose anniversaries occur around this time, we pray also for all who have died through violence, warfare and oppression and for those who may have nobody left to pray for them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

YEAR OF PRAYER 2014 COLLOONEY

To do the Father's will is the call of every Christian, every follower of Jesus. When we pray the 'Our Father' we ask that God's will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Doing the will of God is accepting that God knows better than we do what is for our good. God sees the whole picture, our vision is limited, so why not let God be our sure guide. God always has our best interests at heart. To do God's will is to live in obedience to God knowing that in working with and alongside the Lord, life finds fulfilment and peace. Accepting the Father's will, 'Father ... your will be done', the night before his suffering and death gave Jesus the courage to face the darkest, most frightening time of his life. Will God, our Father, do less for you or I if we entrust ourselves to his will? We are praying for our diocese because we believe that through prayer, God, our Father, will guide us to the fulfilment of his will and support us in the building of his kingdom in ourselves, our parishes and our diocese.
