Corpus Christi – 2nd June 2013

THE BODY OF CHRIST, AMEN

As the bulletin neared completion this week, news arrived that Fr Tom Freyne had just died. May he rest in peace. For almost seventy-two years, Fr Tom ministered to and through “Corpus Christi” - the “Body of Christ”. Faithful to the end, he celebrated priesthood and faith with equal solemnity and energy and our prayer is that he rest now, in the presence of the Risen Christ, in whose memory he broke and shared the Bread of Life for so many years.

Fr Tom requested to be buried at Kilmovee Parish Church - an important presence in his life. A few years ago, some of his friends in France shared with me Fr Tom's reflections. Primary among them, his recall of Kilmovee and its church:

But one is consoled by the new Kilmovee, young and undaunted entering the third millennium. The beautiful church cared for with such love and devotion. The lovely marble altar at which I served so many Masses and on which I offered my first Mass on June 9th 1941. Yes, that is always there.

That church of so many memories. My earliest memory is of going to Mass with my mother in the dark winter mornings when the only light in there came from the two candles burning on the distant altar. The Mass, which has always been a mystery, really felt like one then in my young mind. The dear Curate, Fr. James O'Connell who lived so near to us all, whose Mass I so often served, and who was there to assist me at my first Mass, a happy moment for a priest whose work in a parish may not always be consoling.

May he rest in the peaceful shadow of the Parish Church he loved so well. Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

We remember Fr Tom Freyne, late of Culcastle who died during the week, all who have died recently and those whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they rest in peace.

HOLY HOUR

All are welcome. Admission free. Failte roimh gach duine.

LOUGH DERG

To celebrate the Year of Faith, Bishop Brendan Kelly and some priests of the Diocese are going on the Three Day Pilgrimage to Lough Derg from July 1 to 3 next (Mon-Wed). 'We are inviting people from the Diocese to join us', Bishop Brendan says; 'I want to do this pilgrimage in the Year of Faith for two reasons in particular' he continues 'Firstly, when Jesus began his preaching ministry, his first word to the people was 'Repent...and believe the good news!'. The first step then in the renewal of faith, personally and as a Church, is always repentance. The Lough Derg Pilgrimage, deeply penitential as it is, is a way of acknowledging our need to repent and make atonement for the sins and failures of the past and a way of making a new beginning'. 'The Lough Derg Pilgrimage connects us very much with the faith of our Irish forebears, the faith that always sustained them and gave hope, especially when times were difficult'. 'For these and - or any other reason -, we would love people from the diocese to join with us from July 1 to 3'. Anybody who is interested can contact any local priest, or Fr. John Maloney at 094-9367031, or the Diocesan Office at 094-9860021 before June 17.

+Brendan Kelly,
Bishop of Achonry
