The Fourth Sunday of the Year - 31st January 2016

Catholic Schools Week is an all-Ireland annual event which invites Catholic schools to give expression in a special way to the ethos of Catholic education. It is a celebration of Catholic schools throughout Ireland, North and South which acknowledges the tremendous contribution that our Catholic primary and post-primary schools make not just to Irish society, but to the mission of the Church. Catholic Schools Week 2016 will take place from (this) Sunday 31 January to Saturday 6 February on the theme "Catholic Schools: Challenged to Proclaim God's Mercy".

24 HOURS FOR THE LORD

As part of the Diocesan Response to the Pope's call for a Year of Mercy, there will be a special weekend of prayer in March 11th-13th. The intention is to have 24 hours of Adoration from the Friday evening to Vigil Mass on Saturday evening in a church in the parish. It is hoped those who attend weekly Adoration will make themselves available for one hour during this time. We will need at least two people for each hour and volunteers are welcome. All, of course, are welcome. There will be Confessions available for an hour during this time as part of the "light is on for you" in preparation for Easter. More details later.

COIS TINE

'NA BRÍDEOGA' is a tradition associated with 'St. Brigid's Day' and is unfortunately apart from its memory lost to our heritage. But not so at 'Cois Tine' Heritage Centre Kilmovee. On Monday night, February 1st, Na 'BRÍDEOGAÍ' will perform. To mark this occasion and to herald the coming of spring, musicians, singers and dancers will come together to entertain the audience. The feast of St. Brigid is a good time for remembering the hospitality that Brigid was famed for, so the usual cupán tae will be served with homemade traditional food. A demonstration on the making of St. Brigid's crosses will take place during the first part of the night, come early and join in this local custom. Starting at 8pm. A raffle will be held on the night. Admission is free. Fáilte.roimh gach duine.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATOIN

For a number of years now we have had Eucharistic Adoration in the four churches of our parish. The response has, to say the least, been very positive and heartening. Many thanks to all who make time for The Lord in this way and for your faithfulness in attending throughout the year. At a recent meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council it was suggested that the time might be right to gather those involved with a view to seeing how it is going for you and how best we might continue this prayer form in our parish. It is also hoped we might recruit some additional adorers. With all this in mind there will be a gathering in Kilmovee Community Centre on Thursday next, beginning at 8.15pm (please note time - this is because there is Mass for Catholic Schools Week in Ballaghaderreen at 7pm). We hope that as many of our present adorers as possible from the four church areas might be able to attend and we extend an invitation to all to come along. Perhaps you might consider taking on an "hour for The Lord" during the Year of Mercy. We look forward to seeing you there, hearing your views and sharing a short time in prayer. We will have a cup of tea and a chat and journey on our way! See you there, please God.
