3rd Sunday of Easter– 4th May 2014

THE ROAD

This weekend's Gospel is surely has its place in the "TOP 10" of New Testament moments. A walk, talk, weep, wonder, openness to meeting another, more talk, further walk, invitation, meal, broken bread, recognition and then, left to think about what has happened, getting it clear in the mind so that it can be shared with others.

It's a Gospel Passage that could weave its way into any day of our lives. We are all on "journey" and our Emmaus might be taking children to the school, going to spend time with an elderly parent, visiting a hospital, kneeling down for a few minutes in church - irrespective of the destination we are, all of us, in one way or another, on the Road to Emmaus.

How is the journey going? Who is walking with you? What are you talking about? Are you upbeat of brow beaten? Are you full of faith or riddled with doubts? All these, and more, are the ingredients of our journey. We are lucky to have people to walk with and should be thankful for their companionship. There are times though, when we need to widen the conversation, the circle, and let Jesus walk with us and talk with us.

There is only so much we can do without Him. There is only so far we can go without Him.

YEAR OF PRAYER

remembering PARISH OF KILLASSER

Killasser/Callow is a rural parish with two churches, Callow (1811/1812), and Killasser (1832, with virtually a new church built there in 1868), and two schools, Carrowmore and Killasser. It has a number of community organisations, including an active Pastoral Council. The parish has four interesting early church sites in the townlands of Knockmullin, Graffy, Carrowneden and Cullin. Knockmullin is the location of the church St. Lasair is said to have blessed and given her name. This is the church from which the parish got its name Cill Lasrach, 'the church of Laisir', later Anglicised as Killasser. It is clear from archaeology, history, traditions and religious practice that Killasser has a long and deep religious heritage. Patrick McNicholas, Bishop of Achonry from May 1818 to February 1852, was a native of the parish. He was the first student from the diocese to enter Maynooth College following its foundation 1795. In 1831, Bishop McNicholas established the See of the Diocese in Ballaghaderreen. Fr. John Durkan is the parish priest of Killasser.
