URLAUR PATTERN

Well done to all involved in the organisation of this year's Pattern. It was, once again, a lovely day in the life of our parish community. We thank all who assisted in any way and, in particular, Fr Dominic Towe for joining us in the concelebrating of Mass. We were also delighted to welcome Fr Joe Bulman, OP from the Dominican Friary in Sligo. This is the 800th Anniversary of the foundation of the Dominican Order and it was great to have a link with the Order in this year of celebration and thanksgiving.

WELCOME "HOME"

We welcome Fr Padraig Hawkins as he spends some time with his family in the parish and thank him for celebrating Masses in the coming weeks.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge some recent donations to our Parish, €100.00 in memory of Tony Towe, R.I.P., Auhadefin, €100.00 towards the repainting of Urlaur Church and €100 anonymous donation to the upkeep of parish property.

CEMETERY MASSES

Many thanks to all who prepared for last week's Cemetery Masses in the Parish. The crowds gathering for these Masses is truly the reward for your hard work and dedication. It is wonderful to see so many people gather to pray for and remember the deceased of our Parish. God Bless you one and all.

ANNUAL NOVENA

Knock Shrine will open the 39th annual Novena to Our Lady of Knock on Sunday 14th of August and this year it promises to be bigger than ever with a tremendous line-up of well-known and engaging speakers. Workshop sessions will take place daily to engage people and provide them with the opportunity to discuss and reflect. The theme for this year is 'Merciful like the Father' in keeping with the Jubilee Year of Mercy with a focus on real-life issues and challenges. See noticeboards and knockshrine.ie for further details of speakers, themes and times.

MAYNOOTH STORY

This has been another sad week in the life of the Catholic Church in Ireland. It is difficult to hear stories around a place that has such a deep connection for the priests and people of Ireland. By way of reflection, I put a few thoughts on my blog this week so if you have time to read, please do. The blog link may be found at sherlockshome.ie and the post about Maynooth is entitled "Hashtags and healing". It's just my view, and is shared in the hope that the meaning of the place for me, and many like me, is special and real. Whether you get a chance to read this or not, please pray for all concerned with and by this story and please continue to pray for vocations. There is little doubt we need good people to share the Word of God, through Ministry, into the future.
