Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time 8th February 2015

(This poem featured on John Murray's Radio Show during the week and is on a Short List to become Ireland's favourite poem. Thought it might be worth sharing)

In Memoriam M.K.H., 1911-1984
When all the others were away at Mass
I was all hers as we peeled potatoes.
They broke the silence, let fall one by one
Like solder weeping off the soldering iron:
Cold comforts set between us, things to share
Gleaming in a bucket of clean water.
And again let fall. Little pleasant splashes
From each other's work would bring us to our senses.
So while the parish priest at her bedside
Went hammer and tongs at the prayers for the dying
And some were responding and some crying
I remembered her head bent towards my head,
Her breath in mine, our fluent dipping knives –
Never closer the whole rest of our lives.

LENT 2015

As we near the Season of Lent, we looked at this week's Parish Pastoral Council meeting at how we might celebrate the Holy Season as a parish this year. One suggestion centres around having Stations of The Cross, combined with some time for quiet reflection and an opportunity for confessions in our churches on Wednesday evenings during Lent. The idea is that we will move to each of the four churches and hope that people from all church areas of the parish might consider making this Lenten Journey by coming each week to the church in which we'll gather. Weeks 1 and 5 will take place in Kilkelly Church with Urlaur on Week 2, Glann on Week 3 and Kilmovee on Week 4. It would be great if the choirs in each of the churches could be involved too and lead us in music. We also hope to have one Sunday (possibly Mother's Day) will we will focus on Family Life in the Parish and pray at our parish Masses for all families. We are open to other suggestions and ideas so if you have suggestions, please feel invited to let us know.

SYNOD ON THE FAMILY

Pope Francis has asked that people throughout the world might submit their views and comments in advance of the Synod of Bishops to be held on "The Family" later in the year. The document is quite detailed and contains 46 questions. It is hoped that people might look through this document and select some of the questions for answering. The text of the document is available on our Diocesan Website at this link www.achonrydiocese.org/synod2015 If you get a bit of time, please take a look and consider being involved. Replies are to be with the bishop by mid March.
