Pentecost Sunday – 8th June 2014

Today, we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, it is the beginning or the birthday of the Church. As we hear in the readings, the apostles spoke, all people of all nations heard the gospel in their own language. It is a time for us to reflect on how the Holy Spirit is working in our own lives and the gifts the Spirit gives to each of us.

GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

to love God and respect each other and to deepen that relationship through prayer....

Wonder and Awe:

Courage:

to act bravely.. To find courage to do the right thing, to choose what is good and avoid wrongdoing...

Understanding:

to understand how God is close to us and loves us throughout our lives no matter what.....

Knowledge:

to know more deeply God's loving presence close to us in all things and to live and act in the light of that love...

YEAR OF PRAYER remembering PARISH OF KILMACTIGUE

Kilmactigue (Cill Mhic Thaidh) "The church of Teige's son" is the ancient name of the present parish of Tourlestrane. We are a rural parish, situated in South Sligo, bordering the parishes of Tubbercurry, Curry, Killasser, Attymas, and Bonniclon. We have about 500 homes and around 1400 people live in the parish. We are served by three churches in the parish, -St Attracta's in Tourlestrane, The church of the most Holy Rosary in Kilmactigue, and the church of the Sacred Heart at Lough Talt in Largon. We have three national schools at Drimina, Castlerock and Banada. About 170 children attend the schools. Aclare village is the main built-up area of our rural parish. St Attracta's Well reminds us of the old home-based sacraments and spirituality of a people that is long gone. In Tourlestrane church the statue with the title "Our Lady of Banada" and whose feast day is 8th October, reminds us of another kind of spirituality based more on churches, devotions and priests, a spirituality that is now probably disappearing. Please God we will find what kind of spirituality God has now in mind for our parish, diocese and country. Fr John Glynn is the Parish Priest.
