The Third Sunday of the Year - 24th January 2016

WHAT TIME DO YOU HAVE CONFESSIONS?

Recently someone asked this. It's not a very frequently asked question but is a very valid one. In addition, it's a very welcome one.

As a parish, we haven't any fixed time for confessions but the priests of the parish are very happy to celebrate this Sacrament whenever asked. That said, in this Year of Mercy, it is perhaps a good time to look at putting some structure around this.

With that in mind, Fr John has set aside some time in Kilkelly and Glann for Confessions. These times coincide with the weekend Masses (see Parish Diary on back page) and we will look at arranging some time in Kilmovee and Urlaur too.

Perhaps the time is right to set aside TIME!.
