WATERS CROSSED AND SWIMMING POOL

On Tuesday last, there was a ceremony of blessing at the Kilmovee Swimming Pool. This weekend sees a Family Fun Day organised by the Swimming Pool Committee. Both these events were organised to mark the 40th Anniversary of the opening of Kilmovee Swimming Pool. It is an occasion worthy of celebration and an achievement deserving a community's pride.

There was a wonderful vision in seeing the potential offered by the flowing waters of a river and a bridge to be crossed. Somewhere and somehow this was not alone noticed but remembered and not alone remembered but acted upon. "There's more here than meets the eye" and the dream of having a place where people could swim and learn to swim in safety was realised. For four decades this amenity has been developed and attended to, to the point where now it is a truly established piece of the community's fabric. Countless children have learned to swim here and many more have gone on to become "Life Guards", reassuring the novice that he or she is in good care.

Our Gospel this weekend sees Jesus on the waters of the lake, inviting Peter to join him. Peter begins to sink and cries out for help. The help is only an asking away, though Jesus is disappointed by Peter's lack of faith. It's as if Jesus wants Peter and all of us to be beyond fear and to cherish the Waters of our Baptism, knowing that it is being able to dive deeply into these same waters that true faith and peace are found.

Our Faith is best lived when it is not kept at surface level or at a distance. True and full immersion bring us literally to a deeper place in our relationship with God. The swimming pool can be admired from a distance but to totally understand its value we need to be able to wade deep, find our balance and trust the waters and our ability to flow.

KILMOVEE READERS

Recently a few younger parishioners were asked to consider becoming Ministers of The Word in the Parish. A number agreed and some others are giving it a bit more thought. With that in mind, we might compile a new rota for Readers in September but for now we ask you to follow the present rota (which may be found on our Parish Website under Church Areas and Ministries' Rota) and check the bulletin each week to see if you are scheduled to read. If you are not available to read, please try to arrange a replacement or let us know. Many thanks.

A WORD OF THANKS

Thanks to Frs Padraig Hawkins and Dominic Towey who both have kindly agreed to help out with Parish Masses whilst visiting us for their holidays. It is wonderful to have them with us and we deeply appreciate their generosity.

CEMETERY MASSES

Thanks to all who helped prepare the Cemeteries for recent Masses. There is no doubt our Cemeteries are well maintained and this is due to the keen interest taken by local and voluntary committees. Clearly the ability to celebrate Mass in our Cemeteries is very important to people, gauging the incredible congregations attending. God bless you one and all.

MASS TIMES

A reminder that we will take a closer look at Mass times from September with a view to making it easier for one priest to celebrate Masses in the parish. This will be a "work in progress" for a while until we can arrive at a situation whereby the best service can be provided. The idea of having multiple Masses on any given day is not a good or workable one and, again, we will look to you for your co-operation and understanding in this regard. Please remember the parish in your prayers, so that we can do well by and for one another.

FEAST OF ASSUMPTION

Tuesday next is the Feast Day of the Assumption and is a Holy Day of Obligation. Please note that Masses will be celebrated in the parish, with Vigil Masses in Urlaur (7pm), Glann (8pm) and Holy Day Masses in Kilmovee (10am) and Kilkelly 11.15am.
