SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CALLED AND CHOSEN

It only seems like yesterday since he was a baby in the stable of Bethlehem. Then again, it is scarcely two weeks ago since we celebrated Christmas but in the Ministry of Jesus, we have moved on thirty years and he is calling people to his side.

Among the first he called, was a number of fishermen. There is something very special about this. He seems at home with the everyday man and woman, the workers - and we recall the shepherds being among the first to welcome his birth. Now fishermen help him spread his message of hope.

That call is as real today as it was on that far off day when he asked for help and when one went to the other and said: "We have found him, the Messiah." And it is not just a call around following Christ as priests or preachers but in the workplace, the home, the sportsfield, the point of gathering where we find our voice and share our faith.

Rest in Peace

PLEASE PRAY FOR

We remember in prayer at this time all who died recently and all whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they rest in peace.

ADORATION

In keeping with NPHE and Government Guidelines, we will hold off resuming weekly Eucharistic Adoration for now. If you are in the vicinity of any of our churches, know that you are welcome to call in, light a candle and spend some time in quiet prayer.

SHAMROCKS' LOTTO

The numbers drawn for Saturday 9th January were 10, 43, 45, 47. There was no winner. You can still join our lotto by checking out our Facebook page and following the link there or from club officers. The Club would like to thank Rupert Davis for his work in making the online lotto possible. We are very grateful for this.

FREE COURSE

Now more than ever it is important to have internet skills and to keep in touch with family and friends so Age Action is offering 5 hours of free remote tutoring by phone / video call to help older people use their smartphone, computer, tablet or ipad. The programme takes place in your own home at a time that suits you and includes a free guide. For further information call 091 527831 or send an e-mail for info to gettingstartedgalway@ageaction.ie.

HAPPY TO TALK

Looking at the piece sent in from Kilmovee Community Centre, please know that I am happy to speak with any of you at anytime. Home visits are not encouraged, as we know, but in the event of an emergency, please do not hesitate to call. Aside from that, feel free to phone me at any stage if you just want to talk. As we have been told many times, we are in this together. God bless you, one and all.

NIGHT PRAYER

Thanks to all who join for Night Prayer "on-line". We will continue to do this for the time being. Times might vary but, give or take, around 10pm each night, Monday to Friday. You will find the text for Night Prayer (might be slight variation in phrasing) at this link <https://universalis.com/compline.htm> It is good for us to pray together.

during this time lost its focus, which should always be Christ. When the Church fails to focus on Christ, all sorts of distorted practices emerge. It seems that one of those distorted practices was exercising an unhealthy power over people's lives, especially in the most intimate areas of life." He continues to say: "In my experience the Church has become a more humble, more compassionate community today. It no longer holds an unhealthy, powerful grasp on society. The Church has its teaching, a teaching that is inspired and revealed by Christ, an ideal that followers of Christ aspire to but do not always attain. It is a teaching that is proposed, not imposed."

COMMUNITY WEBSITE

kilmovee.info is currently undergoing some updates. If you represent a sports club or a voluntary group in the community and would like to have news and events highlighted on the site, please get in touch. Please call the Community Centre or contact the website on info@kilmovee.info The community site is there for you and very much depends on you.

MOTHER AND BABY HOMES

Following the publication of this week's report, we share the sorrow and sadness experienced by too many. May we hold the memories of those who died in our prayers and the needs of those surviving in our hearts. Bishop Paul shared a reflection on the report and it may be read on our diocesan website achonrydiocese.org Among the words he shared were these: "There is no doubt, and it is truly shameful, that the Church

PRAYING WITH AMERICA

As we enter the week when a new President will be sworn into office, we pray for The United States where so many of our people found refuge in the past and live their lives today. Recent weeks have been very challenging and frightening. May the future be brighter and more peaceful.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY PADDY

During the week our loyal and dedicated sacristan, Paddy Nyland, celebrated the 90th Anniversary of his 3rd birthday!!! We wish him well and thank him for his faithful service to the parish, in his care of Kilkelly Church where he has been sacristan since the day it opened, close on sixty years ago (January 1962). In wishing him well, may I once again thank him for this dedication and thank all of you who do so much in and around our churches in the parish. At one level it is a blessing but at another, a huge challenge to keep four churches open and welcoming for our people and those who visit us. For all that you do, directly and indirectly in this regard, may you know that it is all very much appreciated.
