FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SPRING

In recent days, I took this photo as I walked back to the house after 9.30am Mass. It truly is a sign that Spring is in the air and a cause for hope that better days are not too far away.

The little droplets of water on one of the flowers speaks to me of baptism and the water that cleansed us afresh and prepared us for a journey in life. Without the water, this would not be possible and without the water the growth of these flowers would be stalled.

There is a resilience in this little plant that brings it to the surface each year, despite the weather conditions or lockdowns. We ask the Lord to implant some of that same resilience in all of us now, that we too may "bloom where we are planted."

ST BRIGID'S DAY CROSSES

In recent years there has been a gathering in Cois Tine for a blessing of St Brigid's Crosses. Sadly that cannot happen this year but John Shiel has kindly made a number of Crosses and these will be left in our churches. If you wish to collect a cross you are very welcome to do so. The Crosses will be blessed at Mass on St Brigid's Day and, if you have Crosses at home, the blessing will be for them (and you) too!

There is also an ON-LINE demonstration of how to make St Brigid's Crosses. It is hosted by Kilmovee Community Centre and available on the Centre's Facebook page and on kilmovee.info - helping to keep this tradition alive!

CONTINUOUS ROSARY

The idea is simple. A continuous Rosary will be offered up every minute of every day for PEACE and CHARITY in Ireland. There needs to be a minimum of 2 parishioners per parish, one with surname beginning A-L and one with surname M-Z, who will pray the Rosary, at a set time, twelve times per year. It is however hoped that many families from each parish will be involved. Every Parish in Ireland has a date and time allocated, the same for every year. For your allocated date and time visit continuousrosary.com and click on diocese and then your parish. It would be appreciated if you could get family and friends overseas involved. For those of you who may like to pray the Rosary every day, and promote it to others, please visit www.1in10rosary.ie an initiative under the spiritual leadership of Archbishop Eamon Martin, Primate of All Ireland.

These are the dates allocated to Kilmovee Parish. If you would like to be involved, you are most welcome.

ON-LINE DONATIONS

A reminder that an on-line donations system has been set in place. It is handled by the diocese but all donations made to a parish, priests’ or special collection are returned to the parish. See achonrydiocese.org/donateonline If you are passing the church during the week and have not yet had the opportunity to collect your box of Offertory Envelopes, you might take a moment and do so. It would be great to have them distributed.
