BACK TO PUBLIC WORSHIP

According to the most recent Government announcement it looks as if return to public worship is being considered, on a phased basis, in the month of May. This news will disappoint many but it is nonetheless a cause for hope and something to work towards. It has been a difficult time for us all and, for some, the pain caused is very real. The fact that we are making a sacrifice like this in the public interest is consolation of sorts and, please God, we will look back on these times with some level of gratitude that we were willing to do the right thing in the name of many people who might be compromised were we to take a different course of action. One of the Spirit's blessings - gifts and fruits, is Patience and we seek it now, as we have sought it in the past. These days will pass!

The website is currently being updated with a new look and content. Community Groups are welcome to have items of news etc, included on the site or to have a page, on which they can create their own content. At present there is very little content on the site but it will be updated in the coming weeks. Your input is welcome. THANK YOU

Thank you to all who have dropped in Offertory, Trócaire and Priest's Collection envelopes or who have made donations on line. This is very much appreciated and your kindness and ongoing support is truly encouraging. May God bless your generosity of spirit and your goodness, not least in these continuing uncertain times for us all. Your support means more than you might imagine.

HOLY WATER

On Easter Sunday, Holy Water (in small bottles) will be available for those who might want it. The Holy Water will be blessed at the Easter Vigil and will be available for collection from our four churches on Easter Sunday. Please collect a bottle if you are free to do so. Two donations that were recently received by the parish, one in memory of Daniel J Duffy, Hawaii and the second in memory of P.J. Gallagher, Mahanagh (Cloonloo) have been put towards the purchase and supply of these bottles. Many thanks. Thanks also to Liam Rochford, a student of St Louis SC Kiltimagh, who filled these bottles as part of his John Paul 11 Awards programme.

TRÓCAIRE 2021

If you have been using the Lenten Campaign Box, you are asked to return it this week. If that is possible for you, you might count the contents and convert to notes or cheque and return to the parish as soon as possible. You may use this link achonrydiocese.org/donateonline to make your donation. Select "SPECIAL COLLECTIONS", choose or create the amount you wish to donate, click on Kilmovee from drop down list of Parishes and "TRÓCAIRE" from drop down list of collections. Thank you for your ongoing support of Trócaire in its work with the world's poorest people.
