17th Sunday of The Year – 25th July 2021

He is one of my favourite characters in any Bible story. Though un-named, he is remembered for an act of kindness that could be put down to childish innocence or incredible faith – maybe both.

What made him offer those loaves and fishes? How could he have imagined that there was anything approaching enough food to feed five thousand? It is certain that generosity was his driving force. Maybe it "wasn't off the grass he licked it" – maybe he knew it from his home. I like to think he did. Maybe it wasn't off the grass he licked it but it was on the grass Jesus asked people to be seated and it was on the grass he fed them.

He also believed. The child in him recognised in the man before him, as one who could do powerful things, one who could make anything happen. He had seen and heard enough to know the power that came from Jesus.

It is somewhere between the child in us and the faith in us that we can best meet Jesus and feed a multitude; one by one.

Never doubt your five loaves and two fish

PLEASE PRAY FOR

Please pray for Bridget Stevens, (nee Cassidy) New Jersey and formerly of Clooniron who died recently and for all whose anniversaries occur at this time.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic Adoration in Kilmovee and Glann churches will not take place during the month of August. We will resume in September and look at perhaps including Urlaur and Kilkelly Churches. Many thanks to all who have been so faithful to attending Eucharistic Adoration in recent months. Please remember that you are always welcome to drop into any of our churches to spend some quiet time in prayer.

GRANDPARENTS' DAY

This Sunday is day for Grandparents and the Elderly. The following prayer is offered on this special day

Lord Jesus,
you were born of the Virgin Mary,
the daughter of
Saints Joachim and Anne

Look with love on grandparents the world over.
Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all of society.
Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of noble domestic ideals, living treasures of sound religious traditions.

Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience.

Lord Jesus help families and society to value the presence and role of grandparents and the elderly. May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love.

Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them.

Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents and the elderly constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end.

Amen!

REMEMBERING OUR DEAD

There will be four Masses offered in the parish before the end of the month to recall all who died in the parish since the outbreak of Covid and whose funerals were celebrated within the restrictions laid down. All those who died will be named at these Masses and family members, where possible, are welcome to attend any of the Masses. This will lessen the crowd at any one Mass and give people the chance to remember their loved ones and neighbours.

The Masses will be celebrated on Thursday 29th at 7.00pm in Kilkelly,

Friday 30th at 7.00pm in Kilmovee,
Saturday 31st at 6.30pm in Urlaur; and
Saturday 31st at 8.00pm in Glann

These four Masses will also replace our Cemetery Masses for this year.

DONATIONS ONLINE

Please remember that you can support the parish online through achonrydiocese.org/donateonline. If you choose to do this, please include your Offertory Envelope Box Number, Name and Parish so that the donation may be forwarded by the diocese to our parish. Thank you for your support.

EVENING MASSES

A reminder that from the beginning of August, daily Masses in the parish will be celebrated in the mornings. At present we have two evening Masses to facilitate people in attending Mass during the week. As our situation with COVID and the roll out of vaccines improves, it is hoped that the need for evening Masses may not continue. We are still asked to keep numbers limited so, insofar as possible, those able to attend one of the daily Masses in the parish are encouraged to do so. This will assist us in keeping within limits for the celebration of Sunday Masses.

WELCOME BISHOP PAUL

A word of welcome to Bishop Paul Dempsey, who will join us for the 11.30am Mass in Kilkelly this Sunday. It is good to have him with us. We wish him every blessing in his ministry.

MINISTERS OF THE WORD

Weekend July 31st-August 1st

Urlaur: Kay Keane
Glann: Sheila Harrington
Kilmovee: James Hunt
Kilkelly: Ivan Leetch

SAFEGUARDING

Geraldine Duffy and Michelle Jordan are our Parish Safeguarding reps. In each of the churches, it is envisaged, that there will be some people to assist in the safeguarding role. With that in mind, three people from each of the churches have been asked to assist and some training will be provided by the diocese in the near future and Garda Vetting will be required. Thanks to all who have agreed to be involved. It is important that we do all we can to ensure safety.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION ON MONDAY

Immaculate Conception, Kilmovee: 10.00am - 4.00pm
St Patrick's Glann: 4.00pm - 8.00pm
