14th Sunday of The Year – 4th July 2021

He was amazed at their lack of faith!

Who were they? In this weekend's Gospel passage, we find Jesus at home among his own people. Wonderful things are being said about him and stories of his miracles and words from other places have reached home. The people, his own people, find it hard to accept this because they know him and his people. "The carpenter", "the son of Mary", his relations are all around the place and they wonder where he got it all. Chances are there was more than a little begrudgery involved!

Jesus names it for what it is – "A prophet is despised in his own place and among his own people" – sad, but true. In many ways so little has changed.

It can be there in all of us. That underlying resentment of local success. Maybe it is jealousy or, worse again, hatred but it is so destroying. We need to be careful around this because it serves nobody's interests really.

We do well to rejoice with people in success, give credit where it is due and encourage others to use their gifts always, always. We do well to believe.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

designed by freepik

Please pray for Ellie Jones (nee Duffy), sister of Mary Courtney, Derrtavrane, who died recently and all whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they rest in peace.

WEBCAM INSTALLED

Our new webcam was installed in St Celsus' Church, Kilkelly during the week. It is turned on and people can view the church Sanctuary area at any time by logging into our parish website kilmoveeparish.org. All public ceremonies from the church will be livestreamed.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congrats to Eloise Mc Donnell on representing Mayo in the u10 art All-Ireland final and bringing home a bronze medal. This is an amazing achievement. Eloise is following in the footsteps of her sister Lucia who came 3rd in the same competition a few years ago.

WEDDING BELLS

Congratulations and best wishes to Allison Leetch and Pdraig Cunnane who were married in Kilkelly on Saturday last. We wish them every blessing in life.

CHOIRS AND MUSIC

It is good to have music back in our churches. For the time being, we will keep the numbers involved to a minimum. Thank you for your commitment to music in the parish. It is very much appreciated.

PARISH MAGAZINE

The editorial committee is looking for articles/photos/stories again this year so if you wish to submit items for inclusion in the upcoming 2021 edition of the magazine, you are asked to email kilkellykilmoveemagazine@gmail.com, send a message on Facebook or contact any committee member.

DRY STONE WALLS

We are delighted to be able to offer our third Dry stone wall course led by Kilmovee native Dominic Keogh of Vernacular Conservation Ltd. It will be over two days, Saturday 4th and Sunday 5th September 2021. Dominic will be joined by instructor Eoin Madigan to give hands-on training in dry stone building. They will demonstrate how our rich local heritage of drystone walling has created unique and very biodiverse habitats within our vernacular landscape. Places are limited so please contact us to book attendance.

DONATIONS RECEIVED

Many thanks for some donations received by the parish in recent days. These total €950.00 and are a tremendous help to the parish.

STAYING ALERT

Though many improvements have taken place, we are reminded in these times of the need to remain vigilant in our fight against COVID. Please continue to observe all guidelines. We have tried to keep stewarding etc to a minimum in the parish and, thankfully, this is working well but we need to keep all the guidelines in mind around social distancing, wearing face masks hand sanitizing when entering and leaving the church, leaving by side door (where possible) etc. Many thanks for your ongoing cooperation and support. We can get through this.

CEMETERY MASSES

Due to ongoing COVID restrictions around numbers and gathering, the diocese has decided not to have any public celebration of Cemetery Masses this year. Please God, we will be in a position to gather again next year to remember, in prayer, all buried in the cemeteries of our parish.

CELEBRATING BAPTISM

There has been some confusion this week around the celebration of baptism. In our diocese, for now, it has been decided to proceed with baptisms on the understanding that the number attending will be kept to the minimum, namely parents, sponsors with the child. Please God this will continue, and any baptisms arranged will proceed on the dates given. If there is any change, we will review this.

FACEBOOK AND WEBSITE

Is there anyone out there who might have an interest in taking on the updates of the Parish Website and/or Facebook? Ideally some skills in the areas of websites would be a help. If you feel you could be involved or part of a group to take this on, please get in touch. Thank you.

ARRANGING MASSES

Masses arranged for celebration between now and the end of the year are included in the Parish Diary. If Masses to be arranged are for next year, it would be best to discuss these dates with Fr Gavigan when he moves to the parish in August.
