Third Sunday of Advent

12th December 2021

GAUDATE SUNDAY

Jesus Christ our Saviour;

A Light for the Gentiles & the Source of our Joy

We take it for granted that Jesus is the Saviour of the whole human race. This gives us great joy as we prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus at Christmas. But in the early years of the church some people did not accept this truth. The evangelist St Luke goes to great length to show that Jesus came to save all people and not just the Israelites. As Christians we respect the beliefs of different people of various faiths but we also pray for them to know the fullness of life, joy and salvation that comes to us from knowing Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Let us pray.

Lord among the people you know who do not believe in Jesus as their Saviour grant them your gift of joy and help us make a habit of praying for all people to know the fullness of your love through your son Jesus Christ who is the light for the Gentiles and the source of our joy. Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

Please pray for Mike Horan, Wembley London & late of Glann, uncle of Rita Flatley who died recently and for all those whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they all rest in peace.

"A DIP FOR COURAGE"

Well done to Rebecca Regan, her brother Jonathan and the many family and friends who took to the cold waters of Urlaur Lake over the 21 days of "A Dip For Courage". They have been raising money for Irish Cancer Society Research.

You can see photos and videos on their Facebook "A Dip For Courage". A link is also included in the 'About' section of the page where it tells their story and an option to donate.

They would like to thank everyone who has joined them in their journey so far. Kilmovee really is an amazing community to be apart of."

NEW CARETAKER FOR CULMORE CEMETERY

Mayo Co. Co. offer their sympathy to Bridie and the Costello family on the death of Edward who was the caretaker of Culmore Cemetery for 29 years. Mayo Co. Co. wish to notify that Tom Cassidy is the new caretaker.

Please contact Tom at 087 985 6760 to record details of deaths/burials for entry in the cemetery register and to mark out a plot.
