Fifth Sunday of Lent

3rd April 2022

You are not alone

“The one who sent me is with me, he has not left me alone”

John 8:29

Loneliness is sometimes the greatest cross a person has to bear. To feel separated, to feel you have no one to confide in, to feel like a little boat alone on a rough sea can be a dreadful experience. These words Jesus used to describe his relationship with his heavenly father are just as true for us. God’s presence to us is as real as the people who may seem to pass you by. You are not alone. When you feel you are, be still and talk with God during these days of Lent – He has not abandoned you!

Let us pray: O God listen to the longing in my heart this Lent. Help me not to feel sorry for myself but to gain the insights I need to deal with my loneliness. Knowing you are ever with me gives me comfort and strength. Amen.

Synodal Pathway – You will have noticed over the past few weeks that you are being asked to think about what it is like being a member of the Church today. This is part of the synodal process begun by Pope Francis. Your answers to the questions are important and will be summarized at diocesan level, then forwarded to a national coordinating office and eventually will be sent to Rome. The insights from these reflections will inform the Synodal Bishops that will meet in Rome in October 2023. So, your responses are important. You might think about your membership of the Church during the week. You will find a questionnaire in the church where these questions can be answered. Please return the completed questionnaire to Fr Joseph by April 8th. Thank you for your co-operation.
