10th July 2022

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

God’s Word will be done.

“So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but I shall accomplish that which I propose, and succeed in the thing for which I was sent.”

Isaiah 55:11

Sometimes it seems that the good we try to do doesn’t bear any fruit. Your effort to be reconciled with someone is rejected. The home you helped build as a shelter for the homeless doesn’t begin to provide for all the needy. Your attempt to share your values or beliefs is ridiculed. But God promises in Isaiah and other places that His word, that is, His ultimate purposes will always be accomplished. This includes all our efforts to make a difference. Remember that we see is just the short term and not the long haul. Take comfort in knowing that God is in charge.

Let us pray: God of fulfilled promises, let us remember that you are in charge and that we don’t need to be concerned when our efforts to do your will sometimes seem to be unsuccessful. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.
