August 21st

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Life Is Not Fair!

*“These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day’
But he replied, ... ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong...’
So the last will be first, and the first will be last.’”
Matthew 20:12-16*

In the famous story of the labourers in the vineyard, the owner pays all the workers the same amount, whether they worked all day or only one hour. Those who worked all day got the wage agreed upon, so no injustice was done to them. The others got a generous gift. Of course, that seemed unfair to some. Jesus points out that the owner can be as generous as he wants. He chastises the unhappy workers for being envious of the owner's generosity.

When has life seemed unfair to you? Is it really unfair, or are some people being treated differently because of a special reason?

Let us Pray: God of justice, assist us in not being judgemental about who is treated fairly and who is not. Empower us to focus on being fair and generous in all our dealings with others. Amen

Please pray for Toni Cafferky, Galway, wife of Paddy Aughadefin and Galway who died recently and all those whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they all Rest in Peace.

WEDDING BELLS

Congratulations to John Hunt, Culmore, and Laura Whelan, Dublin, who were married in Kilskyre Church, Kells, Co. Meath, on Friday, 12th August 2022. We wish them God's graces and blessings for their future.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland, you gave hope to your people in a time of distress and comforted them in sorrow. You have inspired countless pilgrims to pray with confidence to your divine Son, remembering His promise, "Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find." Help me to remember that we are all pilgrims on the road to heaven. Fill me with love and concern for my brothers and sisters in Christ, especially those who live with me. Comfort me when I am sick, lonely or depressed. Teach me how to take part evermore reverently in the Holy Mass. Give me a greater love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Pray for me now, and at the hour of my death.

Amen

CEMETERY MASSES

The committees of St Patricks and Naomh Mobhi cemeteries would like to express their thanks to all who attended the cemetery Masses, to those who attended to family graves, contributed to the collection for the upkeep of the cemeteries and also to John Joe Cassidy and Tony Killoran for the use of their lands for parking.

Also thank you to Fr Joseph Gavigan and Fr Dan O'Mahony for celebrating the Masses.

COMMUNITY POLYTUNNELL

There will be a sale of polytunnel produce after 10am Mass in Kilmovee on Sunday 28 August 2022.

NAOMH MOBHI CEMETERY KILMOVEE

It has been noticed that occasionally the gates are open when nobody is present in the cemetery. If you are visiting the cemetery and need to open them to drive in, please close them when you exit. If more than one car is present it would be appreciated if the driver of the last car out, closed gates. Thank you for your cooperation.
