August 28th

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Wherever You Go

“But Ruth said, ‘Do not press me to leave you or to turn back from following you! Where you go, I will go; where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God.’”

Ruth 1:16

Ruth was King David’s great-grandmother, yet she was born an Israelite. Her story is in the Bible because of her faithfulness to her Israelite mother-in-law, Naomi. The story of Ruth is one of love and loyalty. This touching story tells how God worked through the faithfulness of ordinary people to bring about His plan of salvation. It gives us insights into how to treat people who are different from us, whether they are foreigners or people of different races.

Think of people in school or work who are different from you. If you take the time to get to know them, your life will be enriched as Naomi’s was.

Let us Pray: Lord God, strengthen me to reach out to people who are different from me. Enable me to see the positive qualities in them and to embrace them as my brothers and sisters. I ask this in Jesus’ name. Amen

Please pray for those who have died recently and all those whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they all Rest in Peace.

BAPTISM

Welcome Baby Chloe Shannon Clarke to the Christian community, following her baptism in Kilmovee Church recently.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Watch Thou O Lord those who wake or watch or weep tonight, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Jesus Christ, rest your weary ones, bless your dying ones, soothe your suffering ones, pity your afflicted ones, shield your joyous ones, and all for your love's sake. Amen
