Glory to God

O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!

How unsearchable are His Judgements and how inscrutable His ways!...

For from Him and through Him and to him are all things.

To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

Romans 11:3 3–36

Paul, in his letter to the Romans, takes time out from his instruction to praise God. It is as if he can't find enough superlatives to describe God. Throughout history artists have attempted to describe God and His works in poetry, music, and paintings. You may have heard Handel's Messiah, which praises Jesus Christ and is often performed during Advent. Reflect on the magnificent images of God you have read in Paul's writings and have seen or heard in other artists portrayals. Add some of your own images as you pray in praise for the wonders of God.

Lord, give me the grace I need to study the gospels and the rest of the Holy Bible just so that I may the better understand the greatness of your love and majesty and reflect it in my own life.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Jesus, take and receive my poor offerings,
Jesus you have given yourself to me now, let me give myself to you.

I give you my body that it may be pure and chaste.

I give you my soul that it may always love,

I give you myself in life and in death, that I may be yours forever and ever.

Amen
