Discipline at the root of Discipleship

*Now, discipline always seems painful rather than pleasant at the time,
but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.*

Hebrews 12:

Discipline is important for growth in the Christian life. As youngsters you will be still subject to parental discipline, whereas as other adults you are subject to societal disciplinary norms, and maybe discipline from employers. More and more you are learning self-discipline, that is, you know what we need to do and why you need to do it. It is sometimes challenging to have the self-discipline needed to be good students, respectable citizens, and hard-working employees. Just remember St Paul's teaching that discipline is not pleasant, but it bears good fruit

Jesus, my model and friend, give me the desire to be disciplined in my approach to life. Enabled me to develop an inner sense of self-discipline as I'm mature in discipleship.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Lord, we are your people, the sheep of your flock. Heal us when we are wounded, comfort us when we are in pain.

Touch us when we are lonely.

Strength us when we are weak.

Help us to know the Father's love through Jesus the shepherd and through the Spirit.

Help us to lift up that love, and show it all over this land.

Help us to build love on justice and justice on love.

Help us to Believe mightily, Hope joyfully, Love divinely.

Renew us that we may help renew the face of the earth.

Amen
