28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

9th October 2022

The Beauty of God's Creation

The Lord is King, let the earth rejoice, let the many coastlands be glad!
Psalm 97: 1

The psalmist reminds us of the splendour of God's reign in Psalm 97. He describes the earth and sea, fire lightening and the heavens – all contributing to the glory of God the Creator. This is a beautiful time of year in many places of the world when the autumn breeze comes in with the coloured leaves and smells of this season.

It looks like the earth is truly rejoicing in the wonders of God.

Take some time to enjoy the beauty of our world during this oncoming week. Find a place where you can sit and watch the trees, plants and birds. Imagine that all of nature has voices with which to praise and thank God for His presence and His glory among us, His people.

Let us pray: Lord God, Creator of all that is good and beautiful, we praise you for the wonders of the world of nature that we will encounter this week. Amen.

DEATH NOTICE

Please pray for
Dan Torpey RIP,
Philadelphia USA,
brother of Peg Davis

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

May God support us all the day long, till the shades lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over and our work is done.

Then in his mercy, may he give us a safe lodging, a holy rest and peace at the last. Amen.
