Third Sunday of Advent: Gaudete Sunday
December 11th 2022

"See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way, the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight'."
Mark 1:2-3

St. John the Baptist, a cousin of Jesus, was sent by God to prepare the people to receive Jesus. John preached repentance, which basically means to have a change of heart so that we may embrace the way God wants us to live. Advent is a good time to think about how our hearts might be changed to reflect the presence of Jesus in our lives to a greater degree.

How prepared is my heart to embrace the values of Jesus, especially as lived in the Church? What places in my heart have I kept closed to change? Lord, open my heart fully to prepare myself for the coming of Christ at Christmas.

Let us pray, God, you gave us Jesus to show us that you love us and as an example of how to be filled with love ourselves. Help me to open my heart to your love in preparation for Jesus's coming anew at Christmas!
Amen.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Jesus, take and receive my poor offerings,
Jesus you have given yourself to me now, let me give myself to you.

I give you my body that it may be pure and chaste.

I give you my soul that it may always love,
I give you myself in life and in death, that I may be yours forever and ever.

Amen
