SYNODAL PATHWAY

“Let us not soundproof our hearts.....Let us listen to one another”

Pope Francis

The synodal journey of the Catholic Church in Ireland has begun but preparing ourselves to think and act synodally does not happen overnight. A synodal assembly without prayer, preparation, and indeed formation risks being merely a parliament of competing voices. At the core of this journey is listening to God by listening to one another.

Practice synodality – a synodal Church is a listening, prayerful Church that engages in dialogue. A listening Church is attentive to the many offering narratives of lives, cultures and peoples so you can listen respectfully to those around you, perhaps especially to those whose opinions differ from your own; to present your arguments clearly and be prepared to have your mind changed. Always aim to bring light rather than heat to any discussion. Prayer keeps the heart and mind open to all that God is doing and desires for humanity and creation. It nourishes and helps us to seek and act according to God's will so that you can pray for the Synod; pray that everyone's attention remains on the spiritual dimension of the journey we are undertaking together.
