Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 2nd July 2023

If you have a problem.

*"Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke it easy and my burden is light."
– Matthew 11:29-30*

Some people imagine that all youngsters live a carefree life devoid of any worry whatsoever. Although at times that is true, at other times life's problems are exactly the type of heavy burden Jesus describes here. You may have situations to face, people to deal with, decisions to make, conflicts to handle, and expectations that are overbearing. Take them all to the One who is not only ready but eager to give you rest. God is the understanding father, the wise mother, the sympathetic friend you are looking for.

Let us pray; Lord, life's burdens overwhelm me. May your Holy Spirit inspire me to tackle every difficult situation I experience in this life with full faith in my God! Amen.

There will be a tribute night to one of Comhaltas branches' long-standing members, Marian Egan at the South Sligo Summer School, on 10th July, in St. Brigid's Hall, Tubbercurry. This tribute is very fitting and well deserved as Marian has taught and influenced so many children over the years, both in Ireland and the UK. We also appreciate her contribution to the church choirs in our parish. If you would like to support this event, tickets are available on Eventbrite.ie or by contacting 0896111375. The branch congratulates Marian and wishes her all the best.
