REPENTANCE

You have taught your people that the righteous must be kind, and you have filled your children with hope, because you give repentance for sins. – Book of Solomon 12:19

Since the beginning of the human race, people have done things they should not have done, things that are harmful to others and to themselves. But as redeemed and baptised people, we admit our sin, do what we can to make amends, and try harder to overcome our failure in the future. It is what is expected of us, and it is a rewarding experience. We are fortunate to have the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation for this purpose. It provides us with a chance to seek God's loving forgiveness and commit to overcoming the temptation of sin. This sacrament is a wonderful gift we have been given.

Let us pray: Lord, enable me to avail frequently of the benefit accruing from celebrating the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. Amen.

DEATH
