God's Word Will Be Done

So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I propose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. Isaiah 55:11

Sometimes it seems that the good we try to do doesn't bear fruit. Your effort to be reconciled with someone is rejected. The home you help build as a shelter for the homeless doesn't begin to provide for all the needy. Your attempt to share your values or beliefs is ridiculed. But God promises in Isaiah and other places that His word, that is, His ultimate purposes will always be accomplished. This includes all our efforts to make a difference. Remember that what we see is just the short term and not the long haul. Take comfort in knowing that God is in charge.

Let us pray, God fulfilled promises, let us remember that you are in charge and that we don't need to be concerned when our efforts to do your will sometimes seem to be unsuccessful. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

My God you have created me to do some work in your service which you have not given to any other.

I have my place in your plan,
therefore I will trust you in all things.

If I am sick, my sickness may serve you.

If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve you.

You do nothing in vain, you may take away
my friends, you may hide my future from me.

Still you know what you are doing and
my God I trust you. Amen

TRIBUTE TO MARIAN EGAN

There will be a tribute night to one of Comhaltas branches' long-standing members, Marian Egan at the South Sligo Summer School, on 10th July, in St. Brigid's Hall, Tubbercurry. This tribute is very fitting and well deserved as Marian has taught and influenced so many children over the years, both in Ireland and the UK. We also appreciate her contribution to the church choirs in our parish. If you would like to support this event, tickets are available on Eventbrite.ie or by contacting 0896111375. Tickets will also be available at St Brigid's Hall on Monday evening.
The branch congratulates Marian and wishes her all the best.
