Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 17th September 2023

What is Spiritual Direction?

Receiving spiritual direction means sharing with another person what is going on in your life, with a view to drawing closer to God. Anamchara (soul- friend) is the title of a best- selling book by John O'Donohue. It is an ancient Irish term for the relationship of two persons in the search of God. Imagine a person meeting a stranger and asking the way to where they want to go: it is that simple!

A person may feel they have only a weak relationship with God; but chatting about this can help them to move along and make good choices. God is always looking out for us and accepts us just as we are, because we are limitlessly loved by God who desires our friendship. Spiritual Direction is of enormous benefit to our Christian lives.

DEATH NOTICES

Please pray for Mary McEvilly (née Kearns), Oughterard and late of Rathnagussane, who died recently and for all those whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they all rest in peace.

THANK YOU

Fr Joseph expresses sincere thanks to all who contributed to the annual Harvest Collection recently and will remember your intentions in his Weekly Mass and prayers for the people of the parish.

As I will be away during the week, Fr Dan O'Mahony has kindly offered to celebrate the weekly Masses at 9.30am. He can be contacted, in case of emergency, on 087 240 1625

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

My God you have created me to do some work in your service which you have not given to any other. I have my place in your plan, therefore I will trust you in all things.

If I am sick, my sickness may serve you.

If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve you.

You do nothing in vain, you may take away my friends, you may hide my future from me.

Still you know what you are doing and my God I trust you.

Amen

ST. CELSUS CEMETERY, CULMORE

The 2023 Annual St. Celsus Cemetery, Culmore Collection amounted to €1,180.

Sincere thanks to all who contributed.
