Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time – 3rd September 2023

The Pretenders

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.” – Matthew 23:25

Jesus was really going after the pretenders – those who project goodness but really are sinful. He had no time for hypocrites. Sometimes people look terrific and appear to be nice, but are conniving and manipulative. They use others under the pretence of helping them. Sometimes, as children we do the same when we do extra chores around the house only when we want a parent or a sibling to do us a favour. Or when we act especially nice only when we want to be noticed by someone special. Jesus tells us we need to be consistent in the good we do, not just turn it on when we want something for ourselves.

Let us pray:

Lord Jesus, help me to know who I am and to become who you want me to be. Strengthen me to avoid hypocrisy and not to practice goodness merely when it's convenient for me. Amen.
