Third Sunday of Advent

17th December 2023

Advent: The Peaceful Kingdom

The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion together, and a little child shall lead them.

Isaiah 11: 6

This chapter in Isaiah gives us the famous image of a peaceful place where animals that usually are enemies get along and even rest together. The peaceful kingdom, as it's called, has been the subject of paintings and literature. It endures because it is what our heart longs for. But as a human race, we all too often try to impose our will on others for personal gain, revenge, and the sheer high of being in control. The result is a never-ending spiral of violence. Jesus stands in opposition to all violence as He shows us the way to Isaiah's vision of a peaceful kingdom. This week, let us take one action to be a peacemaker at home or among our friends.

Jesus, Prince of peace, show us the way to a life of peace.

DEATH NOTICES

Please pray for all those whose anniversaries occur around this time. May they all rest in peace.
