November Month of the Dead: Grief is love

Those who have never loved will never experience grief. They are the most vulnerable people of all. They have missed what life is all about. Grief doesn't end because love doesn't end and the relationship even with death doesn't end. Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith. When all is said and done grief is the price of love.

Where there is deep grief there is deep love.

Grief is one of the strongest emotions we experience and it is healthy to express it and not hide it. What you are feeling is in fact good, strange as it may seem. Take all the time you need. Learn to live with grief. It can be exhausting. Face it; work through it. It is okay to be hurting. Don't try to be strong and put up a brave front.

Express your grief and cry again; talk, and talk again.

Grief heals; tears strengthen. Be proud of your grief.

Grief is love and God is love.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Lord, we are your people, the sheep of your flock.
Heal us when we are wounded, comfort us when we are in pain. Touch us when we are lonely.
Strengthen us when we are weak. Help us to know the Father's love through Jesus the shepherd and through the Holy Spirit. Help us to lift up that love, and show it all over this land. Help us to build love on justice and justice on love. Help us to Believe mightily, Hope joyfully, Love divinely. Renew us that we may help renew the face of the earth. Amen.
