1st Sunday of Advent

1st December 2024

Reverence at Mass

During the season of Advent, it is a great opportunity for us to reflect on the concept of reverence at Mass. Some good news about reverence: it works two ways! Even if my faith is weak and faltering, I can thought-fully and deliberately adopt a reverent attitude, along with careful posture and movement, a thoughtful sign of the cross, a slow and genuine genuflection.

These bodily gestures are not just an expression of what is going on in our minds and hearts: they also foster reverent attitudes. I can't always muster a felt sense of faith and devotion, but I can always be reverent, and that reverence will exercise its own influence on my Christian faith. So let's appreciate and practice reverence, this wonderful spirituality of the body in our appreciation of Jesus this Advent Season.
