4th Sunday of Advent

22nd December 2024

“My soul magnifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour”

Praise is the highest form of prayer, so our attitude should be one of gratitude. The Psalmists were the masters of giving praise to God in the psalms. They teach us the art of praise and thanksgiving. ‘Praise the Lord, for it is good to sing praises to our God.’. We praise God for the many blessings in our lives, the many graces we have received, and for his abundance of good gifts. The word Eucharist comes from the Greek eucharistein meaning ‘to give thanks’ and the Mass is sometimes referred to as the Eucharist or the Sacrifice of Praise.

When we lift up our hearts in praise and thanksgiving the Holy Spirit gives us the grace to overcome the cynicism and hardness of heart which is part of the human condition for which we seek forgiveness.

My soul magnifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour – O praise the Lord my God and sing of his mighty deeds and external love.
