The Epiphany of the Lord

The Magi came from afar to worship Jesus in the stable in Bethlehem. Their prophetic gifts symbolised kingship (gold), divinity (frankincense) and suffering (myrrh). On reaching the stable they bowed low and worshiped Jesus. God the Father constantly seeks worshippers who will worship Him in spirit and in truth. Our goal is to worship and praise the living God. Many of the saints practised the presence of God in busy daily and monastic life. Their thirst to be in God's presence lifted them above the ordinary and focused their attention not just on things here on earth but on Heavenly things. These saints said:

‘We should dedicate ourselves to becoming in this life the most perfect worshippers of God we can possibly be, as we hope to be through all eternity.

Proclaim the glory of the Lord, let every tongue confess that He reigns, and lift up His name in praise forever.
