Fifth Sunday of Lent

April 5th & 6th 2025

Prayer for Mercy

"Neither do I condemn you." John 8:1-11

The story of the woman caught in the act of adultery in St John's Gospel takes us to the heart of God's mercy. Being caught in the act of adultery would quickly catch headlines, especially when it was considered sinful as well as scandalous. Yet this is well within the embrace of God's mercy. Thank God for the inclusion of this story in the Gospel. The Bible tells us that God's mercy is as wide as the ocean, deeper than the sea, and higher than the mountains, and as far as the west is from the east. During this season of Lent we have an opportunity to reflect on God's mercy and forgiveness which he offers us freely once we open ourselves to the opportunities especially in the Sacrament of Penance.

Out of the depths I cry to you O Lord. Reveal the depths of your mercy and forgiveness and teach me not to take it for granted.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Jesus, take and receive my poor offerings, Jesus you have given yourself to me now, let me give myself to you. I give you my body that it may be pure and chaste.

I give you my soul that it may always love,
I give you myself in life and in death, that I may be yours forever and ever.

Amen
