Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 24th & 25th 2025

The Angel of the Lord is encamped around those who fear him.

Jesus assured us that angels watch over us. 'Look down on those little ones. Their angels in Heaven always see the face of God my Father.' The doors of the apostles' prison door was thrown open by an angel. We all benefit from their mysterious and powerful help. When we celebrate the Eucharist we join with them to worship the Blessed Trinity. We invoke their help in a special and beautifully poignant way in the funeral liturgy. 'May the angels lead you into Paradise.' Beside each one of us is an angel, our shepherd and protector, charged to lead us to life. Call upon your Guardian Angel. Thank God for your Guardian Angel. Trust in your Guardian Angel.

Let us pray

O angel of God, my holy guardian, given to me from Heaven, enlighten me this day, and save me from all evil.
Instruct me in doing good deeds, and set me on the path of salvation. Amen.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

Thank you Lord for the little things that often come our way. The things we take for granted and don't mention when we pray. The unexpected courtesy, the thoughtful, kindly deed. A hand reached out to help us in the time of sudden need. Oh, make us more aware, dear Lord of the little daily graces, that come to us with sweet surprise from never dreamed of places. Amen
