LOVE ONE ANOTHER

"Into your hands O Lord, I commend my spirit"

Aristotle said, 'It is easy to perform a good action, but not easy to acquire a settled habit of performing such actions.' A habitual and firm disposition to love our neighbour is demanding and challenging. Some might even say it is nigh impossible. St Gregory of Nyssa said: 'The goal of a virtuous life is to become like God.' St Paul said: 'Be imitators of God and live a life of love', and Jesus called us to be perfect as his Father in heaven is perfect. No pressure then! We cannot truly love without God's help. The prayer of love isn't 'I thank you, God, that I am not like others' but, 'God have mercy on me a sinner'

Let us pray: Have mercy on me, Lord. Pour out your unfailing grace upon me that I may live a life of love.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

My God you have created me to do some work in your service which you have not given to any other. I have my place in your plan, therefore I will trust you in all things. If I am sick, my sickness may serve you. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve you. You do nothing in vain, you may take away my friends, you may hide my future from me. Still you know what you are doing and my God I trust you. Amen
