Saint Teresa of Avila – 1515 – 1582

Saint Teresa of Avila, the well-known Carmelite Saint, always had a great gift for friendship and the Lord taught her over time to allow this gift for friendship to influence the way she understood her relationship with God. She eventually defined prayer in terms of friendship. She said: ‘prayer in my opinion is nothing else than an intimate sharing between friends; it means taking time frequently to be alone with Him who we know loves us.’ Her gift for friendship and her understanding of friendship enabled Teresa to understand the kind of relationship she should have with God. When she died, and her sisters were going through her prayer books, a little piece of paper slipped out of one of them, a homemade bookmark, and on this bookmark were written the following words in her own hand: “Let nothing disturb you. Let nothing frighten you. All things are passing away. God never changes. Patience obtains all things. Whoever has God lacks nothing. God alone suffices.”

Saint Teresa of Aliva’s words continue to bring calm, comfort, and serenity to people today.
