PRAYER AND LOVE

One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Love isn't about words, it's about action. St John Henry Newman said: 'One secret act of self-denial, one sacrifice of inclination to duty, is worth all the mere good thoughts, warm feelings and passionate prayers.' In the heat of the day, in the pressure of the moment and the daily grind, we are called to love. For example, to resist the urge to gossip when the impulse is overwhelming, this is love. To get up and serve when you are tired, fed up and overwhelmed, this is love. God's grace is the source of this loving service. St Gregory of Nyssa said, 'He who gives you the day, will also give you the things necessary for the day.'

Our Father in heaven, give me today the daily bread of your word and strengthen me through prayer to love and serve by neighbour.
