28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 11th & 12th

The Jubilee Year 2025

During this Holy Year, we are called to be tangible signs of hope for those of our brothers and sisters who experience hardships of any kind. I think of prisoners who, deprived of their freedom, daily feel the harshness of detention and its restrictions, lack of affection and, in more than a few cases, lack of respect for their persons. Pope Leo proposes that in this Jubilee Year governments undertake initiatives aimed at restoring hope; forms of amnesty or pardon meant to help individuals regain confidence in themselves and in society; and programmes of reintegration in the community, including a concrete commitment to respect for law.

This is an ancient appeal, one drawn from the Word of God, whose wisdom remains ever timely. It calls for acts of clemency and liberation that enable new beginnings.... In order to offer prisoners a concrete sign of closeness, Pope Leo has opened a Holy Door in a Roman prison, as a sign inviting prisoners to look to the future with hope and a renewed sense of confidence.

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION

My God you have created me to do some work in your service which you have not given to any other. I have my place in your plan, therefore I will trust you in all things.
If I am sick, my sickness may serve you.
If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve you.
You do nothing in vain, you may take away my friends, you may hide my future from me.
Still you know what you are doing and my God I trust you. Amen
