One Solitary Life

My soul magnifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour.

Jesus was born in an obscure village. He worked as a carpenter until he was thirty. For three years, he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a home. He was only thirty three years when the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. One of them denied him and He was turned over to his enemies by one of them and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. His executioners gambled for his garments, the only property he had on earth. When He was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave, through the pity of a friend.

Of all the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that have reigned – put together – have not affected life on the earth as much as this one, solitary life.
